Special notices in the reading columns of the MINER will be charged at the rate of FIFTY CENTS per line for each insertion.

Subscribers to this paper will confer a favor by sending notice of any irregularity in its delivery to this office.

KINGMAN LODGE NO. 7, I. O. O. F. meets every Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock during the months of April, May, June, July, August and September, and at 7:30 during the months of October, November, December, January, February, and March. Visiting brothers are cordially invited to attend.

WM. RICHARDS, N. G. M. C. COPELAND, R. S.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Silver, $97 3/4. Lead, $4.55.

Several new houses will be built in Chloride this summer.

The cowboys have all returned from the rodeos in this county.

The case of the Territory of Arizona against H. A. Rodgers has again been continued. This time the trial is set for July 9th.

Quite an extended view of Kingman and surrounding country can be obtained from the tower of Crozier & Mackenzie's windmill. The scenic view is quite grand and is really worth the climb of sixty feet to obtain it.

One of the fallen ones of Kingman had an attack of hemorrhage last Saturday night which came near resulting fatally, but the doctor at last succeeded in stopping the flow of blood and now the poor woman is getting along nicely.

Fourteen of our citizens have taken stock in the Columbia Building and Loan association, and Harvey Hubbs has been appointed treasurer of the institution, Hon. F. S. Dennis president, L. O. Cowan attorney and J. E. Perry local agent.

Why would it not be a good idea for the ranchers on the Sandy to set out orange trees. The climate is certainly mild enough to grow almost any kind of semi-tropical fruits, and then the farmers will find fruit a much more profitable crop than hay or barley.

Joe Labarre has struck a vein of very rich ore in the valley below Chloride. From a few days' work Mr. Labarre obtained enough ore to net him several hundred dollars. From surface indications Joe has a fine property and we hope it will net him a fortune.

Charles Sherman returned home from San Francisco, Cal., Wednesday morning. He was accompanied by his daughter, Katie, and his sister-in-law, Miss Lizzie Oram. The young ladies have been at school during the past year and have come home to remain during vacation.

Teodora Cordero, a Mexican, who has been sick for some months with dropsy, died at the home of Alonzo Ferrar in the west end of town last Thursday night, and was buried the next morning. The deceased was a married man and leaves a wife and two sons in Tucson, and two other children in Phenix.

A wrestling match took place on Stockton Hill a few days ago between two of Mohave county's solid men. After knocking out the transom lights and shattering the greater part of the glass in the front of Jack Ellis's irrigating parlor, the champion of the west side of the mountain was declared the winner.

We neglected last week to mention the arrival of Dr. W. P. Ewing, of Charleston, West Virginia. Dr. Ewing is the father of Henry P. Ewing, Mrs. John M. Marshall and Mrs. M. W. Scott, of this county. The doctor is an affable gentleman and we hope he can be induced to become a permanent resident of Mohave county.

We understand that there will be a prize fight at the Needles to-morrow between W. H. Clark and another bruiser. Clark did considerable painting in Kingman about a month ago and is well-known here. We presume a number of Kingman sports will go down to see the mill. The fight will be under the London prize ring rules.

The mine owned by Mr. Davis on the topmost pinnacle of Sherwin's Peak, deserves more than a passing notice. For years past the float from this ledge has been found by old Mohave County prospectors, but they one and all failed to find the vein from whence it came. Mr. Davis was chopping wood on the mountain last winter and accidentally stumbled onto the ledge, but knowing nothing about ore did not realize that he had found a bonanza. The ore looked to him like lead, but in reality it was solid horn silver. The ore will average about one thousand ounces per ton, and there is now an eight inch streak of this ore in sight. Part of the claim has been bonded to Colorado parties, and the balance is being worked by the lucky owner.

W. W. Clack has returned to the C O D mine.

W. D. Hartley has given his residence a neat coat of paint.

The MINER office has turned out a great deal of job work this week.

P. H. Tompkins and Abe Lafever went down to Cedar Monday morning.

Jesse Gilliland and Ben Maynard were over from Mineral Park Tuesday.

John Lynch has been in town from the C O D mine for several days past.

John Barry returned home Monday morning after a week's visit to the county seat.

Mrs. Lydia I. Pattridge returned from an extended trip to California Thursday morning.

Hon. A. Cornwall, J. A. Carrow, Miss Carrow and Miss Wilson were in from the Sanday Monday.

Some of our people remained up all Friday night to witness the solar eclipse Saturday morning.

Mr. Bailey, an expert piano tuner from Pomona, Cal. was stringing up the instruments of our citizens Monday.

Jesse Gilliland and Ben Maynard came over from the Park Monday evening to attend the trial of W. R. Boddy and John Lee.

H. P. Ewing and his father, Dr. Ewing, took a trip out to Mohave county's rich mining camp, Chloride, Monday morning.

The horse race Sunday at the Park, was run by J. H. Campbell's horse and Joe Frisk's racer, the former horse winning easily.

Our Fourth of July committees should be hustling. It is poor policy to wait until the last moment to get things ready for a celebration of this kind.

Dr. W. P. Ewing left for his home in Charleston, W. Va., yesterday morning. We regret that Dr. Ewing could not have been induced to locate in this county.

A letter recently received at this office from Dr. H. Hardrich, now located in Albuquerque, N. M., conveys the information that he is much improved in health since leaving Kingman.

An election for school Trustees will take place in the different school districts of this county on the third Monday in this month. The Trustees of Kingman district give notice of the forthcoming election in this issue.

Kingman sportsmen take occasional trips out into the foothills of the Wallapai mountains in quest of the festive jack rabbit and elusive cottontail these bright sunny days, and generally come home laden down with game.

We are sorry to have to chronicle the death of the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Johnson, which sad event occurred on the night of June 7th at Mineral Park. The little one was buried Monday morning.

The account of the Indian ghost dance now going on at Coara Springs, is a graphic pen picture of events occurring in and around the Indian encampment as seen and heard by our correspondent on his recent visit in behalf of the MOHAVE COUNTY MINER.

The new addition to the Hubbs House will make it the most commodious of any hotel between Albuquerque and Los Angeles. Mr. Baker is doing all that man can do for the accommodation of guests and should receive the patronage of the people and the public generally.

It is about time to commence building a race course in Kingman. The course should be in town, as few people care to go outside of the town limits to witness any kind of a race. Beal Street, with a little work done on it, would make an excellent six hundred yard straight away course.

The jury in the case of the Territory of Arizona against John Lee, charged with dealing monte without a license, found a verdict of guilty, while the jury in the case of his partner, W. R. Boddy, charged with the same offense, brought in a verdict of not guilty. The last named party was defended by Judge J. M. Murphy, while the former plead his own case.

P. H. Tompkins is in from Cedar.

Newt Snell is in from Wallapai mountain.

Capt Burbage came down from Stockton Hill Thursday evening.

The Wallapais are having another ghost dance in Wallapai mountain.

The committee on sports should be getting the race track in condition.

Come to Kingman on the Fourth and join us in celebrating our nation's birthday.

This section has been experiencing considerable dusty, blistering weather during the past few days.

The Courier says Judge Murphy is the man to deliver the Fourth of July oration in Kingman, and so say our citizens.

John McGregor returned Wednesday afternoon from the Diamond Joe mine, and reports everything running along smoothly.

The ranchers around Kingman will be shipping fruit in about ten days. The finest fruit ever grown here will be produced this year.

J. N. Cohenour, Peach Springs' popular young merchant, was looking over the beauties and possibilities of Kingman Wednesday.

M. P. Delahanty came over from Chloride last evening. He has a car load of lead ore at the sampler, that he will have run through to-day.

John Marshall and wife and M. W. Scott and family came down from Stockton Hill Thursday evening and returned home the next day.

The musical committee met at the M. E. church last night to formulate a musical program for the Fourth of July. It was well attended and considerable practice was had.

Hon. P. F. Collins came in from the Champion mine Thursday night. He reports work on the Champion tunnel progressing finely and that it will reach the ledge in about fifty feet.

James Twigg came in from Toda Basin yesterday evening. Mr. Twigg has the contract for putting up the new hoist on the Paymaster mine and also for sinking the main shaft of the mine twenty-five feet deeper.

G. W. Beecher is making considerable improvement to his place on Front street. Besides building a storeroom and summer kitchen, he will put on a neat porch to the west side of his house that will add much to the appearance of the place.

The larger portion of the inhabitants of the outlying settlements have signified their intention of being present in Kingman on the Fourth of July, and will materially aid in its celebration. They will be warmly welcomed by our generous-hearted people.

A lecture on Physical Force was given in the M. E. Church last Thursday evening by Dr. W. P. Ewing of Charleston, W. Va. The lecture was for the benefit of the little ones and was instructive as well to older folks. The doctor is an able and fluent speaker and the lecture is highly spoken of by those who were fortunate enough to attend.

We understand that our fellow townsman, Philip Hach, will make an interesting comparison of the American form of government with that of the monarchical form of the old world, in an address to be delivered by him on the Fourth of July. M. Hach thoroughly understands the subject upon which he will speak and it will be well worth listening to.

The MINER would be pleased to receive any and all communications of interest from all parts of this county, but we insist that the parties sign their names in full or the manuscript will find a resting place in our waste basket. We have received several very interesting communications during the past few weeks, but cannot publish the same because no name accompanied the correspondence.

Card of Thanks.

I wish to return thanks to the good people of Hackberry for their many acts of kindness during the last illness and death of my father.
